Final Integrated Amendment
The Popular Continuance, Civic Vote, & Civilizational Memory Amendment

Section 1 — Two-Term Baseline
No person shall be elected to the Office of President more than twice, except as expressly authorized by the People under this Article.

Section 2 — Popular Authorization for One Additional Term
(a) A President elected twice may seek authorization for one additional elected term only through a National Continuance Vote.

(b) Such vote shall be automatic, held concurrently with the general election, and shall not require discretionary approval by Congress beyond ministerial administration.

Section 3 — Authorization Threshold
Authorization shall require either:
Fifty-five percent (55%) of the national popular vote and a majority vote in a majority of the States, or Sixty percent (60%) of the national popular vote, regardless of state count.
Failure permanently disqualifies the individual from future presidential office.

Section 4 — Absolute Cap
No person shall serve more than three elected presidential terms under any circumstances.

Section 5 — Civic-Initiated Voting Path (Pre-Ratification & Stress-Test Clause)

(a) The People may conduct Civic Continuance Votes administered by non-governmental, citizen-led electoral bodies.

(b) Such votes shall:
Use transparent, auditable procedures
Permit public observation and independent verification
Carry no legal forc
(c) Results shall serve solely as legitimacy signals, stress-test data, and reform inputs.

Section 6 — Stability-Protected Recall

(a) A President serving a third term may be subject to one National Recall Vote only if:
Verified petitions equal 20% of voters in the most recent presidential election,
Signatures are distributed across two-thirds of the States, and
Petitions are filed no earlier than 24 months into the third term.

(b) Termination requires 55% of the national popular vote.

Section 7 — Emergency Power Continuity

(a) Any national emergency declared during a third term shall expire after 120 days unless extended by:
A national popular vote, or
Approval by the People at the next federal election.

(b) Immediate executive response authority remains unimpaired.

Section 8 — The Chroniclor (Civilizational Memory Clause)

(a) A permanent, public, append-only archive (“the Chroniclor”) shall record:
Preconditions of any Continuance Vote
Arguments for and against authorization
Voting outcomes
Subsequent executive actions and consequences

(b) The Chroniclor shall have no enforcement power, no eligibility authority, and no punitive function.

(c) Its sole purpose is intergenerational accountability and pattern preservation.

Section 9 — Judicial Finality
The Supreme Court shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction over disputes arising under this Article, with expedited review required.

Section 10 — Non-Retroactivity
This Article applies only to presidential terms commencing after ratification.

Section 11 — Post-Tenure Transition (Lame-Duck Neutralization)
A President who serves a third term shall be ineligible for ten (10) years following that term to:

Hold any federal appointive office
Serve in any judicial capacity
Engage in compensated lobbying or influence-peddling on behalf of domestic or foreign entities

Purpose:
To ensure the third term is an act of public service, not a gateway to shadow power or monetized access.

Section 12 — Continuance Campaign Finance Hard-Cap
Any National Continuance Vote and any election for a third term shall be conducted under exclusive public financing.
No private, corporate, union, or PAC contributions permitted
A fixed, equal public grant shall be provided
Expenditures beyond the grant are prohibited

Purpose:
To sever billionaire leverage and ensure the vote reflects record and trust, not money.

Section 13 — Succession Integrity (Non-Transferability Clause)
Authorization for a third term is personal and non-transferable.

If the Office of President becomes vacant during a third term:

The Vice President shall serve temporarily only
A special national election shall be held within 120 days

The elected successor may serve only the remainder of that term
The successor shall be ineligible for additional terms beyond that remainder

Purpose:
To prevent dynasties, proxy presidencies, or inherited legitimacy.
